

TRIP TO LUCKNOW

---

Walking Tour Itinerary (Approx. 5 km radius from Charbagh)

1. Charbagh Railway Station to Hazratganj

- Distance: ~2.5 km
- Walking Time: ~30 minutes

Directions:

- Exit Charbagh Railway Station and head west on Station Road.
- Walk straight through the Chowk area, and follow the road to Hazratganj.
- Hazratganj is a central area with many shops, markets, and eateries.

Things to Do:

- You can explore local shops, historic buildings, and enjoy the bustling atmosphere.
  - There are numerous restaurants and cafes where you can take a short break if you wish.
-

2. Hazratganj to Rumi Darwaza

- Distance: ~1 km
- Walking Time: ~12 minutes

Directions:

- From Hazratganj, walk north-east towards Rumi Darwaza.
- Follow Moti Mahal Road and you'll quickly arrive at the gate.

Things to Do:

- Admire the grand Mughal-style architecture of the Rumi Darwaza, a famous historical monument.
  - Take pictures of this architectural marvel, which is often called the "Turkish Gate."
-

3. Rumi Darwaza to Bara Imambara

- Distance: ~500 meters
- Walking Time: ~6 minutes

Directions:

- From Rumi Darwaza, head southeast on Aminabad Road.
- Follow the road directly to Bara Imambara.

Things to Do:

- Explore the Bara Imambara, a famous architectural landmark known for its vast central hall and the Bhool Bhulaiya (labyrinth).
  - The maze is a must-try, but be cautious as it can be tricky to navigate.
-

4. Bara Imambara to Chota Imambara

- Distance: ~1 km
- Walking Time: ~12 minutes

Directions:

- From Bara Imambara, head east along Chowk Road.
- The Chota Imambara will be on your left.

Things to Do:

- Visit the Chota Imambara, known for its intricate Islamic architecture and beautiful chandeliers.
  - The Imambara is also home to the tombs of Nawab Muhammad Ali Shah and his family.
-

5. Chota Imambara to Ambedkar Memorial Park

- Distance: ~2 km
- Walking Time: ~25 minutes

Directions:

- From Chota Imambara, walk south on Chowk Road and head towards Shah Mina Road.
- Turn right towards the Ambedkar Memorial Park, which is located in Gomti Nagar.

Things to Do:

- Relax and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere of Ambedkar Memorial Park. It's a large park with statues, fountains, and serene walking paths.
  - The park is dedicated to Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, and features beautiful sculptures and monuments.
-

6. Ambedkar Memorial Park to State Museum

- Distance: ~2.5 km
- Walking Time: ~30 minutes

Directions:

- Walk back north along Shah Mina Road to reach Charbagh area.
- From there, head towards State Museum, which is around 2.5 km away, on the opposite side of Charbagh.

Things to Do:

- Explore the State Museum to see a collection of artifacts from Indian history, culture, and art.
  - The museum offers exhibits from ancient Indian civilizations, along with historical artifacts.
-

Estimated Total Walking Time: ~2 hours and 25 minutes

Total Distance: ~9.5 km

Optional Adjustments:

- If you're short on time or prefer a slower pace, skip one of the stops (like Ambedkar Memorial Park) or limit the time spent at each location.
  - Take breaks at Hazratganj or the cafes near Bara Imambara to rest.
-